

Louisville, Ky.
 r, Doors, Sash and el Roofing. They

1/2 size 1/2 price.

The popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the great demand for a cheaper package, has been recognized by the proprietors in the new half-size bottle, costing 50 cents.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1895.

Local Brevities

Hens are laying.
Sweet corn goods—City Bakery.
Orville Gregory went to Louisville last week.

Walter S. Smart left Sunday for Chicago.
Merchants are busy taking an inventory.

"Billy" Stettin, of Haverhill, is in the City Bakery.

Mr. Walter J. Sherman has returned to Toledo, Ohio.

Baked beans with tomato sauce—Gregory & Gibson.

Subscribe for the News, and you'll be contented during '95.

Something special in cattle snap, 12 inches long for 5 cents—Gregory & Gibson.

Miss Pearl Lawson, of Haverhill, was with Miss Wayne DeHaven last week.

Miss Edna and Rosa Morvan have gone to Brandenburg for a visit with friends.

Mr. H. J. May, Jr., and Miss Lydia Graham were in Ekron last week with friends.

Miss Annie Brandenburg went to Grahampton, her home, Wednesday to visit her parents.

Thomas Drane and Jo Harpole, of Bowling Green, have returned and are again at duty.

Judge James R. Skillman went to Harbington last week to qualify as judge of this city.

Clover creek is at the right stage for good grazing. Wouldn't the boys like to see her?

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wills have returned home from a visit to relatives and friends in Haverhill.

The Columbia Circle B. V. R. C. meets with Mrs. Dr. Smith, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Addie G. Dittie, of Louisville, was here from Friday until Sunday with her sister, Mrs. D. B. Babage.

Miss Ida Moser, of Evansville, a most charming young lady, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Hoffman.

Russell, the bright little eight-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culley died last Sunday night of croup.

The members of the A. O. U. W. lodge will initiate their new members to-night by giving their fellow friends an evening spread.

Miss Rosa Crittenden, of Frankfort, passed up on the train Monday. She had been visiting Miss Gussie Brasher, Owensboro.

On Thursday evening last week there took place at the Presbyterian church a candy pulling which was in every way a success.

Miss Lillian and Lena Allen were a most pleasant visit with their cousin, Mrs. A. R. Fisher, here returned to Haverhill their home.

Everyone that could skate and those that never did, were in the sport on those put away last year. The sport was said to be excellent out on Patton's lake.

Miss Nannie Brasher who spent a week with relatives in West Point came home Friday night. She reports a fine time, but says there's no place like Cloverport.

Miss Allene Murray had with her at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Murray, New Year's afternoon a number of special friends to partake of a cup of "good cheer."

Mr. Olie R. Tousey who for years has been connected with the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway as freight clerk in this city, has accepted a similar position with the Louisville Southern.

Mrs. Stark, Pleasant Ridge, O., says, "After two doctors gave up my boy to die, I saved him from croup by using one Minute Cough Cure." It is the quickest and most certain remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles—Short & Haynes.

George Greer, engineer on the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway, has been appointed Traveling Engineer of the road. This office was just inaugurated Jan. 1. Mr. Greer was somewhat surprised but however is deserving of the promotion.

Mr. Sam Counsel and wife reached here from Sargentstown Saturday morning. They spent a most pleasant week. Mr. Counsel is a great sportsman and was not living any more than usual. He killed 300 partridges and rabbits and had bird pie to eat.

Miss Mad Herndon, of Akron, Ohio, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zach Herndon, who has been spending a few days with Mr. Hannah Hardin, of Holt's Bottom, reached here Monday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price and Miss Jennie Warfield. Miss Mad is always a welcome addition to our society.

MAGNIFICENT.

Turn Out to The Cloverport Masonic Annual Banquet.

A Bountiful Spread, a Good Time and a Large Attendance.

The Masons, their sons, daughters and honorary members were there. This brilliant annual occasion calls back to those present the agreeable, good-natured and pleasurable event of one year ago.

This kindly affair was on the closing night of the old year and it was in evidence that all heard the bells at midnight ring in the new.

Those from adjacent towns were greeted a welcome hand and they too, were soon to feel that the night was for them. Lawis Powers from Haverhill assisted local talent (members of the order) in singing the fresh tones of the new instruments. Not later than the hour of ten an elegant and sumptuous repast was tastefully and prettily served and enjoyed.

Those charming feminine guests were a stranger gave inspirations that Cloverport is the place for a location. This proved that all is congenial and when in a collective body the masonic gives an impression that is retained forever and forever. Towards the departing hour, a cake walk was the laughing scene. Those who participated were Mrs. J. H. Rowland, Mrs. Charles Latham, Miss Nannie Brasher and Miss Addie G. Dittie, Messrs. Dudley Hamblin, Charles Lightfoot, Wm. D. Smart and Eugene Vest. They did walk and walked gracefully and with a purpose and promenade for an hour. The judges decided the prize in favor of Miss Addie G. Dittie, Louisville and Hon. Dudley Hamblin, which was the large cake presented by Capt. F. M. Ryan, Hon. D. R. Murray in his comely way tendered the prize to Mr. James G. Harris, the retiring Master of the order. Mr. Chas. R. Skillman succeeded him in all the magnificent reception will remain on the minds of those until a likewise event.

Henry Harper and son, Charlie and George Willis, of Gladstone, were in town Monday on business.

Mr. Bette Magnus, of New Albany, reached here last week and will be with her brother, Mr. Joe Magnus.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rodman, of Irvington, came down to Stephensport Tuesday to attend the Blinn-Biggs nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Benben Miller and Mr. Coleman Howell, of Harbington, were here Friday and attended the Masonic banquet.

Every physician and druggist must register with the County Clerk by Jan. 10, in default of which they are subject to a heavy fine.

Miss Jennie Green, of Falls of Rough, arrived Friday to attend the Masonic banquet. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Short.

Edward Foster, Owensboro, spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Babage, and attended the Masonic banquet Friday night.

P. S. Miller came in from Glasgow Friday. Mr. Miller has been stationed at the above place as Internal Revenue agent and recently has been assigned to Uniontown.

The meeting of the endowment rank of K. of P., December 29, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: G. W. Short, Pres.; A. A. Laffel, Vice Pres.; Chas. May, Sec. and Treas.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Rudolph's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by using Dr. Williams' Little Blue Pills, the famous "blue pills" for stomach and liver troubles.—Short & Haynes.

Mr. R. T. Laffel and Miss A. S. Goodman, daughter of Mr. Laffel Goodman, were married Dec. 29 at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. S. F. Kelley performed the ceremony. They will spend their honeymoon at Barboursville attending school.

Mr. K. B. Blain and Miss Ollie Biggs, of Stephensport, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Biggs, at 9 o'clock, a. m. last Wednesday. Rev. W. B. Rutledge performed the ceremony. The bride and groom left immediately for their home in Florida.

There is a history attached to the portion of Cloverport known as "Cow Hill," so said a brilliant young lady of that locality. A news reporter, who was sent to be present and endorsed by every means to have her reveal the story. She promised to do so sometime in the near future, and the readers of the News may look forward for a rich and interesting article.

Prof. Chas. Cashman who has successfully discharged the duties as principal of the Cloverport High School will at the expiration of the term, which is Jan. 15, leave for Harbington. Mr. Cashman is a sterling young man of high moral character and has a host of good friends in this city. I will enter the office of County Attorney, R. N. Miller which profession he seeks.

The installation of the officers of the K. of P. took place Monday night in their lodge room. The following officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Chancellor, Chas. May Sr.: S. P. Conrad, O. C.; E. H. Kingsbury, V. C.; Ed. Wilkerson, Prele; A. A. Laffel, M. of E.; S. F. Kelley, M. of E.; A. L. Oiler, M. of E.; Henry B. Laffel, M. of E.; T. Daniel, M. of E.; W. J. M. Laffel, L. G.; E. H. Zerkel, O. G.; A. A. Laffel, E. H. Kingsbury and G. W. Short.

While sitting Friday evening around a bright and comfortable fire chatting and conversing, apparently about the Old and New Year, the home circle of Mr. Prior Graham was in a strange manner disturbed. In the evening a large brown chicken hawk flew against the lower sash of the window, which gave light to their bedroom, breaking the pane, entering, flew to the bed and then dropped from its month a small innocent sparrow, dead to the world. After this, the hawk immediately flew from the room through the same pane. This was rather strange occurrence and cannot be explained.

Johnson, Ark., Feb. 22nd, 1897. J. C. Mendelbald, Knoxville, Ind.

Dear Sir: I have a very satisfactory cure on your Improved Chilli and Fever Cure during the last year and find it gives me such satisfaction as any child can tell.

Hopewell, W. T. Mass.

CASTORIA

Is in every

Dr. H. H. H.

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

Is in every

WEBSTER.

Write it, 1895

A great deal of moving.

Geo. Hatfield has typhoid fever.

Conrad Beauchamp is "stumpficker" here now.

Mrs. A. R. English, Cloverport, visited here several days last week.

Marshall B. K. will move to Meade county shortly.

John Johnson has embarked in the poultry business.

Miss Myra Hanks resumed her school here last Saturday.

This holiday season here, was the dullest ever known.

It is reported that Richard Claycomb is to be a drug clerk shortly.

Mrs. Anna Jordan and daughter, Lizzie, of Farnessville, Texas, are here on a visit.

Mrs. Anna Kingsley spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Henderson.

Miss Norrie Kuris accompanied her sister, Miss Ella, on her return to her school near Owensboro, for a week's visit.

Mrs. Anna Fyrmire, of Farnessville, Tex., was taken to Louisville, last week to consult a surgeon in regard to the performance of a surgical operation which was decided and she was brought to Louisville.

John and his wife, where she remains in a critical condition.

"A Howling Success"

Wherever popular introduced Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as a cure for constipation, has met with a phenomenal sale.

Many druggists cannot say enough in praise of its merits, as well as its great popularity with the people.

It is sold in 50c and $1.00 sizes, of Chas. O. Martin.

Capt. Martin and his Newboys.

The News had a concert Saturday for an hour.

On the return trip of the Str. Hagan she landed at the lower wharf and put off Capt. Martin and his hand of newboys, who were making the rounds of Louisville. They came directly to the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a front porch and rear end of a car. Perhaps the story of the Honey and Tar will explain why they could do so.

They were the students of the News office and played for an hour in the presence of a large crowd who enjoyed their sweet music.

We were told to have them and Capt. Martin with them. They were a handsome, fine looking band of noble boys, employed in a great work. Capt. Martin is also doing a great work in giving his boys and sailors to the upholding of character and correct habits in these boys and fitting them for the business of life.

Success to Capt. Martin and his newboys.

Two Well Known Students

Talked for months from a

